The Research Milestone

Stage 1

COURSEWORK COMPLETION

- The coursework includes three trimesters, and a minimum score of 60% must be maintained by the scholar in each course to proceed to the research phase.
- Attendance and participation in assessments, and regular research progress reports are mandatory.

Stage 2

SYNOPSIS SUBMISSION

- Scholars, under the guidance of their Supervisor/Co-Supervisor, develop a structured research proposal on a chosen topic.
- The proposal must be defended before the Thesis Advisory Committee (TAC), marking a critical milestone in the research journey.
- Publication Requirements: Scholars must publish at least two research papers in reputed ABDC, Scopus, FT50, or Web of Science indexed journals before submitting their thesis.

Stage 3

PILOT AND PROGRESS SEMINAR

- Post-approval, scholars engage in original research, actively contributing to their field through empirical and theoretical advancements.
- Progress Seminars – Every scholar must present progress updates every six months to ensure alignment with academic standards.
- This process ensures the research meets high academic standards and practical relevance before final thesis submission.

Stage 4

THESIS SUBMISSION AND DEFENSE

- A formal pre-submission seminar is conducted, where scholars present their key research findings before a panel of faculty and external reviewers.
- Post pre-submission, the final thesis must be submitted in the prescribed format, supported by a plagiarism check report (Similarity Index ≤10%). The scholar should ensure that the suggestions/inputs given by the reviewers are incorporated.
- Viva-voce: Scholars must defend their research in an open viva-voce examination. The viva-voce is a crucial final evaluation, where scholars justify their research, respond to critical questions, and highlight the academic and industry implications of their work

Award of FPM

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE. HONORING SCHOLARS

The Fellow Programme in Management (FPM) at Jaipuria culminates in the prestigious 'Fellow of Jaipuria Institute of Management' award, a testament to the scholar's dedication, intellectual rigor, and contributions to management research. This award positions them as thought leaders, ready to advance academic discourse and industry innovation.

Successful completion of coursework, Synopsis/Research proposal and thesis defense leads to the award of Fellow of Jaipuria Institute of Management.

Scholars earning this prestigious title are recognized for academic excellence, high-impact research, and leadership in their domain.

Graduates become part of Jaipuria's distinguished research alumni network, with opportunities in academia, consulting, think tanks, and corporate research divisions worldwide.
