Process-flow of IQAC-Academic Audit

The IQAC Academic Review Report is to be filled by each faculty teaching a specific course, at the end of each trimester. All courses are taken into account.

With a view to keeping in tow with OBE compliance, the latest IQAC Academic Review Report has been divided into three parts which are as follows;

1. Part One: Comprises of Sections A, B, C and D.

   Section-wise details are;
   Section A: Quantitative Compliance with Course Outline
   Section B: Planned/Actual Assessment of CLO Attainment; Deviations from CLO (if any)
   Section C: Alignment of assessment task with CLO
   Section D: Any innovation in Course Delivery and/or Evaluation (with evidence)

   This portion is to be filled and signed by the concerned faculty. Furthermore, it is to be submitted to the IQAC Department within the given deadline at the end of every trimester.

2. Part Two: Area Level Review with all Area Members

   Under this, the concerned Area members meet and evaluate the course on the basis of rubrics given in part two. The rubrics takes into account the four criteria: a) Compliance, b) Innovation, c) Quality of Continuous Component and d) Quality of Central Component.
   Based on the rubrics, the course is evaluated and graded accordingly by the Area. The rubrics for evaluation criteria are as follows;

   i) If the Area rates the four components criteria as "Exceeds Expectations," then the maximum score should be 10 (on a scale of 10).
   ii) If the Area rates three components criteria as "Exceeds Expectations," and one as "Meets Expectations," then the maximum score should be 09 (on a scale of 10).
   iii) In case of any other combinations as rated by the Area, involving "Exceeds," and "Meet," with no "Below Expectations," the maximum score given should be 08 (on a scale of 10).
   iv) If the Area rates any one criteria as "Below Expectations," the maximum score should be 07 (on a scale of 10).
   v) If the Area rates any two criteria as "Below Expectations," the maximum score should be 06 (on a scale of 10).

vi) If the Area rates three criteria as "Below Expectations," the maximum score should be 05 (on a scale of 10).

3. Part Three: IQAC Committee Review- Comprises of the Director, Dean Academics, IQAC Chair and the concerned Area Chair.

   During this, the IQAC Committee meets to discuss the IQAC Report of all courses. On the basis of the Area rating, the Committee gives specific comments pertaining to the course and thereafter, gives its final rating.
